A RESOLUTION.

Directing free-holders to report a re-assessment of the cost and expense of widening and extending Halstead street.

Whereas, objections have been made to the assessment returned by the assessing board heretofore appointed to assess the cost and expense of widening and extending Halstead street; and

Whereas, it is the sense of this council that such objections are reasonable and valid and should be sustained; therefore,
Be it resolved by the Council of the City of Akron, Ohio, that W. A. Sherbondy, M. Erdman and Levi Wolf, three disinterested freeholders of the corporation, who are hereby appointed a board for that purpose, be required to prepare and report to this council an estimated assessment of the cost and expense of widening and extending Halstead street, upon the lots and lands benefited by said widening and extending thereof, as set forth in an ordinance providing for said widening and extending, passed May 7, 1900; said assessment is to be in proportion to the benefits which may result from said widening and extending, and limited to the special benefits conferred thereby to each lot or land or parcel thereof assessed.

This resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.
Adopted Sept. 2, 1901.
